Business is Booming - financials show sales of Over $1,250,000 and growing daily.

Having an experienced supervisor and loyal trained staff ensures the business can operate without a full-time business owner present.

The owner spends no time on the tools but working on strategy, systems and generally over-seeing operations. Choosing his time spent in the business as he decides.

Full workshop facilities specializing in domestic, commercial and corporate fleet repairs based in a very busy central location.

Established over 25 years with an outstanding reputation for quality, efficiency and...
